Washington's Vision and Guiding Principles for Crisis Response and Suicide Prevention

Vision: 988, Washington's Crisis Response: building understanding, hope, and a path forward for those in need, where and when they need it.

People in crisis experience:

- Timely access to high-quality, coordinated care without barriers
- A welcoming response that is healing, trauma-informed, provides hope, and ensures people are safe
- Person and family centered care
- Care that is responsive to age, culture, gender, sexual orientation, people with disabilities, geographic location, language, and other needs

The Crisis System is intentionally:

- Grounded in equity and anti-racism
- Centered in and informed by lived experience
- Coordinated and collaborative across system and community partners
- Operated in a manner that honors tribal government-to-government processes
- Empowered by technology that is accessible by all
- Financed sustainably and equitably

Guiding Principle: People in crisis experience timely access to high-quality, coordinated care without barriers.

1. What does this mean in practice?
2. How might we measure whether this is happening?
