Washington Apple Health

Washington Apple Health Administrative Hearing Rights and Deadlines

- If you receive Apple Health coverage, you may have the right to request hearing rights and due process if you are denied a benefit or service, if your appeal is denied, or if you believe your interest is not being served.

- If you are denied a request, you will receive a notice that explains your right to appeal and provides information on how to appeal.

- You have the right to appeal the decision if you disagree with the outcome.

- If you lose an appeal, you can file a notice of appeal with the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS).

- If you are denied a benefit or service, you may have the right to a hearing before an administrative law judge.

- If you are denied a request and you believe your interest is not being served, you may have the right to a hearing before an administrative law judge.

- If you are denied a request, you may have the right to request a reconsideration.

- If you are denied a request, you may have the right to appeal the decision to an outside entity.

For more information, visit the Department of Social and Health Services website or call the Health Care Authority (HCA) at 1-888-338-7410.

HCA 12-508 BS (7/17) Burmese