

Per Beneficiary Per Month FFS Program Payment Rates

Stage of Care Coordination	Total Rate	Total Administrative costs allowed
Tier 1: Outreach, Engagement, and Health Action Plan – G9148                      Outreach by mail; phone; or other methods, continues until the eligible Beneficiary agrees to participate or declines participation in the Health Home program. Engagement occurs after the Beneficiary agrees to participate and a face-to-face visit is scheduled between the Beneficiary and the Health Home Care Coordinator in a location of the Beneficiary's choosing, such as their home or provider's office. Health Action Plan Development includes face-to-face visits to complete the Health Action Plan, the Health Home Participation Authorization and Information Sharing Consent form, and coaching to assist the Beneficiary in identifying short and long term goals and associated action steps. HCA shall pay $252.93 for Outreach, Engagement and Health Action Plan Development once in a life-time per Beneficiary.	$252.93	$25.29
Tier 2: Intensive Health Home Care Coordination – G9149                      The highest level of Health Home Care Coordination services using one (1) or more elements of the six defined Health Home Services. Intensive Health Home Care Coordination includes evidence that that the Care Coordinator, the Beneficiary, and the Beneficiary's caregivers are actively engaged in achieving health action goals, participating in activities that support improved health and well-being, have value for the Beneficiary and caregivers, and support an active level of care coordination through delivery of the Health Home Services. At a minimum, intensive Health Home Care Coordination includes one face-to-face visit with the Beneficiary every month in which a qualified Health Home Service is provided. Exceptions to the monthly face-to-face visit maybe approved by the Contractor as long the Health Home Services provided during the month achieve one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Clinical, functional, and resource use screens, including screens for depression, alcohol or substance use disorder, functional impairment, and pain appropriate to the age and risk profile of the individual</li> <li>Continuity and coordination of care through in-person visits, and the ability to accompany beneficiaries to health care provider appointments, as needed;</li> <li>Beneficiary assessments to determine readiness for self-management and to promote self-management skills to improve functional or health status, or prevent or slow declines in functioning;</li> <li>Fostering communication between the providers of care including the treating primary care provider, medical specialists, personal care providers and others; and entities authorizing behavioral health and long-term services and supports;</li> <li>Promoting optimal clinical outcomes, including a description of how progress toward outcomes will be measured through the Health Action Plan;</li> <li>Health education and coaching designed to assist beneficiaries to increase self-management skills and improve health outcomes; and</li> <li>Use of peer supports, support groups and self-care programs to increase the Beneficiary's knowledge about their health care conditions and improve adherence to prescribed treatment.</li> </ul> At least one (1) qualified Health Home Service must be provided during the month and prior to submitting a claim for intensive Health Home Care Coordination. HCA shall pay $172.61per Beneficiary per month for intensive Health Home Care Coordination.	$172.61	$17.26
Tier 3: Low-Level Health Home Care Coordination – G9150                      Low-level Health Home Care Coordination occurs when the Beneficiary and Health Home Care Coordinator identify that the Beneficiary has achieved a sustainable level of progress toward meeting self-directed goals, or upon the Beneficiary's request. Low-Level Health Home Care Coordination includes monitoring the Beneficiary's health care needs and progress toward meeting self-directed goals using one (1) or more of the six defined Health Home Services. At least one (1) qualified Health Home Service must be delivered during the month through home visits or telephone calls prior to submitting a claim for low-level Health Home Care Coordination. HCA shall pay $67.50 per Beneficiary per month for Low-level Health Home Care coordination.	$67.50	$6.75