Provider Revalidation FAQ’s

Q. What is Revalidation and why must I revalidate?

A. Federal regulations contained within the Affordable Care Act (ACA) require the agency to be in compliance with enhanced provider screening rules designed to prevent fraud, waste, and abuse within the Medicaid Program. Please refer to 42 CFR Part 455 for the complete set of rules and regulations. One of the requirements under the ACA is to revalidate the enrollment of all Medicaid providers at least once every five years.

Q. Does the notice of revalidation apply to out of state providers?

A. Yes, the provider revalidation process is a Federal requirement that applies to all Medicaid providers, including those residing outside the State of Washington.

Q. What actions are the providers required to take when a provider receives a revalidation letter?

A. The revalidation letter will specify the requirements. Included are requirements for all providers to:

- Gather and Submit the documents requested on your Revalidation Checklist
- Complete the Online Revalidation process
- Other documents or information may be required specific to provider type.

Q. What activities does HCA perform during the provider revalidation process?

A. The HCA:

- Notifies providers by letter when a provider is selected for revalidation
- Collects required documents, including the Core Provider Agreement, Debarment form, and the IRS W-9 form.
- Screens providers according to processes mandated by Federal regulations (42 CFR 455.450). The screening includes federal database checks performed on providers, ownership, managing employees, and controlling interests. Screening may also include unannounced on-site inspections of provider locations.
- Verifies providers are in compliance with agency requirements. This includes verification of professional and business licensure, and may include verification of certification requirements such as Medicare, verification of Trading Partner Agreement on file, and other requirements as specified under State regulations.
