

How long will I have coverage?

Your Family Planning Only coverage is one year from the time you were approved for the program.

What do I do when my coverage ends?

You can reapply for Family Planning Only coverage after you receive notification by mail that your coverage is ending. If you have had a change in income or household size, you may be eligible for free or low-cost Apple Health coverage.

Does Apple Health (Medicaid) coverage also include family planning services?

Yes. Apple Health provides full-scope coverage with additional benefits. For more information, visit hca.wa.gov/apple-health.

Can I apply for Apple Health while I have Family Planning Only coverage?

Yes, you can apply for full-scope Apple Health coverage at any time.

What if I had Apple Health pregnancy coverage and want to apply for FPO coverage?

If you had Apple Health pregnancy coverage and are ineligible for Apple Health for adults, you are automatically enrolled in Family Planning Only coverage for 10 months, beginning 2 months after the pregnancy ends.

How will I know if I am approved and when my coverage begins?

You will receive an approval or denial letter from the Health Care Authority (HCA) by mail. If you are approved, your coverage begins on the first day of the month you applied.
