Your responsibilities (you must) for all health care coverage programs

SSN and Immigration Status Disclosure. With some exceptions, you must provide a Social Security Number (SSN) or immigration document number of yourself or anyone else in your household who wants to apply for health care coverage. An SSN is required to apply for health insurance premium tax credits. We use this information to determine your eligibility by confirming your identity, citizenship, immigration status, date of birth, and availability of other health care coverage.

We do not share this information with any immigration agency.

It is possible to apply for coverage for some members of your household, but not others. If you do not have an SSN or immigration document number for all household members, others can still apply for and get coverage. For example, you can apply for your child even if you aren’t eligible for coverage. Applying won’t affect your immigration status or chances of becoming a permanent resident or citizen.

There are also some Washington Apple Health programs for people who cannot show they are in the country legally. But if you choose not to provide an SSN or immigrant document number for someone in your household, we will need to follow up with you to get information about the non-applicant’s income.

If requested by the agency, provide any information or proof needed to decide if you are eligible.

By law, the State of Washington may recover the costs it paid for certain types of medical services from your estate through Estate Recovery (RCW 41.05A.090, RCW 43.20B.080, and Chapter 182-527 WAC). Estate Recovery doesn’t happen until after your death, the death of your surviving spouse, and your surviving children are age 21 or older. It also doesn’t happen if a surviving child was blind/disabled at your time of death. Recoverable costs include:

- Certain Washington Apple Health long-term services and supports, if you’re age 55 or older at the time you received the services;
- Certain state-only funded services, regardless of your age at the time you received the services.

You can find a list of services subject to cost recovery under WAC 182-527-2742. You can find a list of assets excluded from recovery under WAC 182-527-2746.

The State may also file a pre-death lien on your real property, at any age, if you become permanently institutionalized (WAC 182-527-2734). The State may recover from a sale of the property, or your estate, unless:

- Your spouse lives at the property;
- Your sibling lives at the property, is a co-owner, and meets certain conditions.
- Your child lives at the property, and is blind/disabled; or
- Your child lives at the property and is younger than age 21.

You can find a list of services subject to cost recovery under a pre-death lien in WAC 182-527-2734.
