LT.IC.01

DEFINITION OF DISABILITY

You are Disabled if you meet one of the following definitions:

A. Own Occupation Definition Of Disability

During the Benefit Waiting Period and the first 24 months for which LTD Benefits are paid (Own Occupation Period), you are required to be Disabled only from your Own Occupation.

You are Disabled from your Own Occupation if, as a result of Sickness, Injury or Pregnancy, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Material Duties of your Own Occupation.

B. Any Occupation Definition Of Disability

From the end of the Own Occupation Period to the end of the Maximum Benefit Period (Any Occupation Period), you are required to be Disabled from all occupations.

You are Disabled from all occupations if, as a result of Sickness, Injury or Pregnancy, you are unable to perform with reasonable continuity the Material Duties of any gainful occupation for which you are reasonably able through education, training, and experience

C. Partial Disability Definition

1. During the Benefit Waiting Period and the Own Occupation Period, you are Partially Disabled if you are working in your Own Occupation but, as a result of Sickness, Injury or Pregnancy, you are unable to earn more than the Own Occupation Income Level (80% of Indexed Predisability Earnings).
2. During the Any Occupation Period, you are Partially Disabled if you are working in an occupation but, as a result of Sickness, Injury or Pregnancy, you are unable to earn more than the Any Occupation Income Level (60% of Indexed Predisability Earnings) in that occupation and in all other occupations for which you are reasonably suited under the Any Occupation Definition of Disability.

You may work in another occupation while you meet the Own Occupation Definition of Disability. If you are Disabled from your Own Occupation, there is no limit on your Work Earnings in another occupation.

Your Work Earnings may be Deductible Income. See Return To Work Incentive and Deductible Income.

Own Occupation means any employment, business, trade, profession, calling or vocation that involves Material Duties of the same general character as your regular and ordinary employment with your Employer. Your Own Occupation is not limited to your job with your Employer.

Material Duties means the essential tasks, functions and operations, and the skills, abilities, knowledge, training and experience, generally required by employers from those engaged in a particular occupation.

LT.DD.01X

RETURN TO WORK INCENTIVE

A. During The Benefit Waiting Period

You may serve your Benefit Waiting Period while working, if you meet either the Own Occupation Definition of Disability or the Partial Disability Definition.

B. After The Benefit Waiting Period

You are eligible for the Return to Work Incentive on the first day you work after the Benefit Waiting Period if LTD Benefits are payable on that date. The Return To Work Incentive changes 12 months after that date, as follows:

1. During the first 12 months, your Work Earnings will be Deductible Income as determined below:
 - a. Determine the amount of your LTD Benefit as if there were no Deductible Income, and add your Work Earnings to that amount.
 - b. Determine 100% of your Indexed Predisability Earnings.
 - c. If a. is greater than b., the difference will be Deductible Income.
2. After those first 12 months, one half of your Work Earnings will be Deductible Income.

Work Earnings means your gross monthly earnings from work you perform while Disabled, including earnings from your Employer, any other employer, or self-employment.

LT.RW.01

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION EXPENSE BENEFIT

If you return to work in any occupation for any employer, not including self-employment, as a result of a reasonable accommodation made by such employer, we will pay that employer a Reasonable Accommodation Expense Benefit of up to $25,000, but not to exceed the expenses incurred.

The Reasonable Accommodation Expense Benefit is payable only if the reasonable accommodation is approved by us in writing prior to its implementation.

REHABILITATION PLAN PROVISION

While you are Disabled you may qualify to participate in a Rehabilitation Plan. Rehabilitation Plan means a written plan, program or course of vocational training or education that is intended to prepare you to return to work.

To participate in a Rehabilitation Plan you must apply on our forms or in a letter to us. The terms, conditions and objectives of the plan must be accepted by you and approved by us in advance. We have the sole discretion to approve your Rehabilitation Plan.

While you are participating in an approved Rehabilitation Plan, your LTD Benefit will be increased by 10% of your Predisability Earnings. Your LTD Benefit may not exceed the Maximum LTD Benefit shown in the Coverage Outline as a result of this increase.

An approved Rehabilitation Plan may include our payment of some or all of the expenses you incur in connection with the plan, including:

- a. Training and education expenses.
- b. Family care expenses.
- c. Job-related expenses.
- d. Job search expenses.

TEMPORARY RECOVERY

You may temporarily recover from your Disability, and then become Disabled again from the same cause or causes, without having to serve a new Benefit Waiting Period. Temporary Recovery means you cease to be Disabled for no longer than the applicable Allowable Period.

A. Allowable Periods

1. During the Benefit Waiting Period: a total of 90 days of recovery.
2. During the Maximum Benefit Period: 180 days for each period of recovery.

B. Effect Of Temporary Recovery

If your Temporary Recovery does not exceed the Allowable Periods, 1 through 5 below will apply.

1. The Predisability Earnings used to determine your LTD Benefit will not change.
2. The period of Temporary Recovery will not count toward your Benefit Waiting Period, your Maximum Benefit Period or your Own Occupation Period.
3. No LTD Benefits will be payable for the period of Temporary Recovery.
4. No LTD Benefits will be payable after benefits become payable to you under any other group long term disability insurance policy under which you become insured during your period of Temporary Recovery.
5. Except as stated above, the provisions of the Group Policy will be applied as if there had been no interruption of your Disability.

LT.TR.06

WHEN LTD BENEFITS END

Your LTD Benefits end automatically on the earliest of 1 through 4 below.

1. The date you are no longer Disabled.
2. The date your Maximum Benefit Period ends.
3. The date you die.
4. The date benefits become payable under any other group long term disability insurance policy under which you become insured during a period of Temporary Recovery.
5. The date you fail to provide proof of continued Disability and entitlement to LTD Benefits.
6. If LTD Benefits are paid to an individual incorrectly enrolled due to clerical error, LTD Benefits will end on the last day of the month in which the clerical error was discovered.

LT.BE.01

PREDISABILITY EARNINGS

Your Predisability Earnings will be based on your earnings in effect on your last full day of Active Work unless a different date applies (see the Coverage Outline). Any subsequent change in your earnings will not affect your Predisability Earnings.

For employees whose work hours are reduced due to the State of Washington's mandated furlough program: Your Predisability Earnings will be based on your monthly base rate of pay that would have been in effect on your last full day of Active Work if your work hours had not been reduced under the Furlough program. Any subsequent change in your base rate of pay after your last full day of Active Work will not affect your Predisability Earnings.

Predisability Earnings means your monthly rate of earnings from your Employer, including:

1. Contributions you make through a salary reduction agreement with your Employer to:
 - a. An Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 401(k), 403(b), or 457 deferred compensation arrangement; or
 - b. An executive nonqualified deferred compensation arrangement.
2. Amounts contributed to your fringe benefits according to a salary reduction agreement under an IRC Section 125 plan.
3. Any public funds paid to you as a grant, subsidy or contract for a research project or other work you perform.

Predisability Earnings does not include:

1. Bonuses.
2. Shift differential pay.
3. Standby pay.
4. Commissions.
5. Optional stipends.
6. Overtime pay.
7. Your Employer's contributions on your behalf to any deferred compensation arrangement or pension plan.
8. Any other extra compensation.

If you are paid on an annual contract basis or have an understanding of continued full-time employment, your monthly rate of earnings is one-twelfth (1/12th) of your annual salary (including position stipends).

If you are a full-time hourly paid Member, your monthly rate of earnings is your hourly pay rate multiplied by the number of hours you are regularly scheduled to work per month, but not more than 173 hours.

If you are a faculty Member, your monthly rate of earnings is your average monthly earnings during the preceding 12 calendar months (or during the period of your employment as a Member if less than 12 months).

If you are any other salaried part-time Member or full-time Member, your monthly rate of earnings is your monthly wage or salary (including position stipends) times the number of months you are regularly scheduled to work per year, divided by 12.

If you are any other hourly paid part-time Member or an intermittent Member, your monthly rate of earnings is your current hourly pay rate times the average number of hours per month for which you were compensated by the Employer during the previous 12 months (or during the period of your coverage under the Group Policy if less than 12 months).

If you are a commissioner of a P.U.D., your monthly rate of earnings is 1/12th of your annual compensation (including your percentage of P.U.D. revenue).

RULES FOR DEDUCTIBLE INCOME

A. Monthly Equivalents

Each month we will determine your LTD Benefit using the Deductible Income for the same monthly period, even if you actually receive the Deductible Income in another month.

If you are paid Deductible Income in a lump sum or by a method other than monthly, we will determine your LTD Benefit using a prorated amount. We will use the period of time to which the Deductible Income applies. If no period of time is stated, we will use a reasonable one.

B. Your Duty To Pursue Deductible Income

You must pursue Deductible Income for which you may be eligible. We may ask for written documentation of your pursuit of Deductible Income. You must provide it within 60 days after we mail you our request. Otherwise, we may reduce your LTD Benefits by the amount we estimate you would be eligible to receive upon proper pursuit of the Deductible Income.

C. Pending Deductible Income

We will not deduct pending Deductible Income until it becomes payable. You must notify us of the amount of the Deductible Income when it is approved. You must repay us for the resulting overpayment of your claim.

D. Overpayment Of Claim

We will notify you of the amount of any overpayment of your claim under any group disability insurance policy issued by us. You must immediately repay us. You will not receive any LTD Benefits until we have been repaid in full. In the meantime, any LTD Benefits paid, including the Minimum LTD Benefit, will be applied to reduce the amount of the overpayment. CLERICAL ERROR, AGENCY, AND MISSTATEMENT

A. Clerical Error

Clerical error by the Policyholder, your Employer, or their respective employees or representatives will not:

1. Cause a person to become insured.
2. Invalidate insurance under the Group Policy otherwise validly in force.
3. Continue insurance under the Group Policy otherwise validly terminated.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an individual who did not meet the eligibility requirements, but was enrolled in LTD insurance coverage due to clerical error, LTD insurance will be terminated the last day of the month in which the error was discovered. Premiums will be refunded by the Employer. If LTD benefits are paid to an individual they will continue to be paid until the last day of the month in which the error was discovered.

If the individual's ineligibility for coverage is discovered prior to payment of any LTD Benefits, LTD Benefits will not be paid and premiums will be refunded by the Employer.

If there is an enrollment error in your insurance, your Employer-Paid Insurance will be retroactive to the first day of the calendar month following the day you became newly eligible. If the enrollment error occurred when regaining eligibility as described in PEBB Program rules, Employer-Paid Insurance will begin on the first day of the month you are in pay status eight or more hours. For faculty who regain eligibility no later than the 12th month after the month in which they lost eligibility for the employer contribution, Employer-Paid Insurance begins the first day of the month in which the quarter or semester begins.

If you are called to active duty in the uniformed services under Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) and you lose eligibility for the employer contribution toward PEBB benefits, you regain eligibility for the employer contribution toward PEBB benefits the day you return from active duty. Employer-Paid Insurance begins the first day of the month in which you return from active duty.

Employee-Paid Insurance enrollment is retroactive to the first day of the calendar month following the day you became newly eligible. If you become newly eligible on the first working day of the month, Employee-Paid Insurance will begin on that date.

If the enrollment error occurred when regaining eligibility, including following a period of leave as described in PEBB Program rules, and you continued to self-pay for your LTD insurance after losing eligibility for the employer contribution, or if you were not eligible to continue LTD insurance after losing eligibility for the employer contribution, your Employee-Paid Insurance will be automatically reinstated at the same level of coverage without evidence of insurability effective the first day of the month you are in pay status eight or more hours, or the first day of the month in which the quarter or semester begins for faculty who regain eligibility.

If you were eligible to continue LTD insurance but did not, you must provide Evidence of Insurability to become insured again in Employee-Paid Insurance.

The Preexisting Condition exclusion would apply to the reinstated coverage as shown in Reinstatement Of Insurance.

Enrollment error corrections are determined by the Policyholder and are subject to and defined by applicable law or rules.

Insurance under the Default Plan becomes effective as follows, unless you Decline Insurance within 31 days after the date you become eligible:
