Package Description

Projected costs are based on calculations of the incremental change in the monthly numbers of eligible persons between the February 2016 caseload forecast and the June 2016 caseload forecast. Changes in the forecasted count of eligible persons were multiplied by the applicable February 2016 forecast monthly per capita costs for fiscal years 2018 and 2019 to provide an estimate of net change in spending related to these caseload changes.

This methodology isolates the additional costs attributable only to the changes in forecasted client caseloads and thus reflects changes in funding needed based on current program policies.

What alternatives were explored by the agency and why was this option chosen?

The HCA did not consider any alternatives to meeting the projected costs as determined by the October 2016 medical assistance forecast.

What are the consequences of not funding this request?

The HCA will not be able to maintain services and caseload for low-income population in the State of Washington.

How has or can the agency address the issue or need in its current appropriation level?

The HCA has endeavored to control costs by improving our clients experience through a managed care service delivery model that integrates and coordinates client healthcare needs. With this focus, clients' medical and behavioral health needs are met by meeting their whole person needs as inpatient stays and other costly services will be reduced over time.
