Child, youth, and family behavioral health governance structure

*Meetings are open to the public.

Children and Youth Behavioral Health Work Group (CYBHWG)*

Legislators and representatives from child and youth serving agencies, health care providers, tribal and urban Indian organizations, the Statewide Family Youth System Partner Round Table, and other organizations, as well as youth and parents of children and youth who have received services.

👥 Subgroups

- Behavioral Health Integration
- Prenatal to Age Five Relational Health
- School-based Behavioral Health and Suicide Prevention
- Strategic Plan Advisory Group
- Workforce and Rates
- Youth and Young Adult Continuum of Care (YYACC)

Youth and Young Adult Continuum of Care (YYACC) Subgroup*

Representatives from child and youth serving agencies, health care providers, tribal and urban Indian organizations, advocacy groups, and other organizations, as well as youth and young adults and parents of children and youth who have received services.

Statewide Family Youth System Partner Round Table (FYSPRT)*

Meetings are facilitated by statewide Family, Youth, and System Partner Tri-leads.

Membership includes: Tri-Leads from each regional FYSPRT, tribal and urban Indian organizations, state system partners including representatives from child welfare/foster care, juvenile rehabilitation, mental and physical health, developmental disabilities, family and youth organizations, and education.

Regional and Local Family Youth System Partner Round Tables (FYSPRT)*

Meetings are facilitated by Family, Youth, and System partner Tri-leads.

Membership includes representation from community partners such as: Family and youth organizations, tribal and urban Indian organizations, schools, underserved or underrepresented communities, faith communities, mental health and substance use treatment providers, managed care organizations, behavioral health administrative organizations, child welfare/foster care, juvenile rehabilitation, developmental disabilities, education, law enforcement, and probation.