

Options for behavioral health services responsibility in integrated managed care

|   | Medicaid services/Medicaid clients   | Non-Medicaid services/Medicaid clients   | Non-Medicaidservices/non-Medicaidclients   | MHBG/SAPT  | Crisis   | ServicesRemainingwith DSHS  | County Oversight   |
|---|--|--|--|--|--|---|--|
| Model 1: Procured administrative service organization (ASO) | Managed care organizations (MCOs) assume responsibility for Medicaid services for Medicaid clients | MCOs assume responsibilityfor non-Medicaid servicespaid by state funds forMedicaid clients | Contracted out to Administrative Service Organization within available funds: Includes state funding, CJTA, jail transition services, block grant funds for substance use disorder treatment | Contracted out to Administrative Service Organization e.g.:  Mobile crisis outreach team; substance use disorder peer support; crisis training for first responders; NAMI activities; some non- covered lab tests. | Contracted out to Administrative Service Organization (ASO), MCOs reimburse ASO for Medicaid client services | DSHS directly contracts for Children's Longterm Inpatient Program (CLIP), state hospital. | County staff convene elected officials quarterly; keep elected officials informed through Early Warning System reports; meet with providers regularly and convey issues of concern to HCA and MCOS. In all models, local funding stays under the authority of the county.  Other oversight of programs to be determined in local design: Family Youth System Partnership Round Table; Children's |
| Model 2:County retainsrole as ASO                   | MCOs assume responsibilityfor Medicaid services forMedicaid clients                        | County retains responsibility for BHSC contract (room and  | County retainsresponsibility fornon-Medicaidclients using  | County retains responsibility for block grant  | County retainsresponsibilityfor crisisservices –   | DSHS directly contracts with  | Long-term Inpatient Program (CLIP); Consumer behavioral Health Advisory Board  |

February 2017 1

|  | Medicaid services/Medicaid clients                                      | Non-Medicaid services/Medicaid clients  | Non-Medicaidservices/non-Medicaidclients   | MHBG/SAPT   | Crisis   | ServicesRemainingwith DSHS                | County Oversight |
|--|---|---|--|---|--|---|------------------|
|  |   | board, state funded mandates) OR  MCOs assume responsibility for non-Medicaid services paid by state funds for Medicaid clients   | state-only funds,CJTA, provisofunds, etc.  | fundedservices  | MCOsreimburseCounty forMedicaid crisis   | CLIP, statehospital                           |                  |
| Model 3: Hybrid model, county assumes non-Medicaid responsibilities and can choose to subcontract some functions out or handle in- house | MCOs assume responsibilityfor Medicaid services forMedicaid clients | County retains responsibility for BHSC contract (room and board, state funded mandates) OR  MCOs assume responsibility for non-Medicaid services paid by state funds for Medicaid clients | County directly manages services for non-Medicaid clients or chooses to subcontract to third-party Administrative Service Organization.  May choose to directly manage some funds such as CJTA, Designated Marijuana Account, jail transitions proviso, etc. | County directly contracts for block grant funded services or chooses to subcontract through third-party Administrative Service Organization | County directly manages crisis services or chooses to subcontract through third-party Administrative Service Organization.  MCOs reimburse Medicaid crisis | DSHS directly contracts with CLIP, state hospital |                  |